

Non-Lawful Citizens – Illegal Immigrants

A non-lawful citizen is a person who is in Australia without approval to be here, such people usually arrive without a visa (eg boat people) or are people who have visited Australia but have not left when their visa has expired (over stayers).

People who are here unlawfully may be denied many of the rights given to citizens who are here permanently. These include detention and deportation.